Hello Reception and Nursery!

Shall we do some music today? You can listen to me singing some of our known songs on Riverside Primary School website and you can also access many songs via:

BBC Nursery Rhymes and Songs

Let us wake up our bodies.

- Roll your shoulders back
- Stretch up on your tiptoes and reach hands up
- Curl down to the floor
- Give your whole body a shake and a wiggle
- Breathe into your belly like you're filling a bucket
- Imagine you're chewing a huge toffee and it's getting bigger and bigger!
- Now it's stuck in your teeth - can you get all of the pieces out using your tongue?

Song to access via YouTube

Can you have a go at singing this song from last week?

Sing of a Rainbow – Out of the Ark Song https://youtu.be/eoHh_3AOVgM

New Song

Now let us wake up our bodies and voices some more. Can you listen to Umbalayo by Susie Davies-Splitter to liven up! Have a go at copying back all of her vocal sounds and moving to the beat!

OLEO SONG from last week

Remember this song 'Oleo!' from last week? I have put a recording of it on the website for you to join in with. This song is great for warming up your voice.

Can you make up your own actions and body movements to it again this week? You'll notice sometimes I sing loudly, sometimes quietly, sometimes smoothly and sometimes short and choppy.

WHO'S THAT KNOCKING AT THE WINDOW?

Song on school website to sing along with

Who's that knocking at the window? Who's that knocking at the door?
Lion knocking at the window. Lion knocking at the door.

Who's that.....

Elephant...

Parrot.....

Snail

Last week's song have another go – One Tomato, Two Tomatoes

The recording is on the school website. Can you sing along and count your fingers to seven each time you sing each food? And then can you make up some actions for pop, munch, crunch, scrunch and yum! What food do you prefer eating out of tomatoes, carrots, peas, broccoli and potatoes? What's your favourite type of potato? Mine is definitely roasted potatoes followed by mashed potatoes.

One tomato, two tomatoes, three tomatoes, four.

Five tomatoes, six tomatoes, seven tomatoes more.

Munch, munch, munch, munch, munch, munch, munch.

One carrot.....

Crunch.....

One pea.....

Pop.....

One broccoli Scrunch....

One potato....Yum....

Have a lovely week!
Roseanna

Something to listen to:

One of our Nursery children recorded 'Somewhere over the rainbow' with their family. How many musical instruments in this piece?
