

How many of the spellings from Monday and Tuesday can you remember? Have a go at spelling them then check to see if you were correct by looking at Mondays spelling list.

In the book, Vinnie and Eric realise that they have been invited to a birthday party and are extremely excited to go! Continue the diary from Vinnie's perspective and write about what happened at the party. You could include the games that were played, the food that you ate and some information about the other children who were invited- the more detail the better!

Dear Diary,

Today is a day I will never forget- ever! I woke up, after having hardly slept a wink as I was so excited, and started deciding what to wear...
