KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER

RE	How and why do Hindus worship at home and in the Mandir?	YEAR GROUP 3&4

Cross curricular links	Key skills	Key Vocabulary/definitions
Literacy – story writing	To know that Hindus believe there is one God, Braham, expressed in many forms. To describe what Hindus, believe about the god Ganesha To compare what is important to a Hindu with what is important to me. To know why a home shrine is important To describe how Hindus worship at home using the correct vocabulary To know what happens in a Hindu Mandir To speculate about how a Hindu might feel about different parts of the Mandir.	Braham - is God or the Supreme Being Deities – One god or goddesses Ganesha - elephant-headed Hindu god of beginning Murti - are the colourful figures and pictures of the deities found at Hindu shrines and temples. Dharma – duty Shrine - A shrine is a holy or sacred place with something important inside it, such as the tomb of a religious person. Puja – worship
Pictures/photos relevant to topic
	Key facts

KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER

	Useful website: https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zh86n39/articles/zmpp92p Interesting facts: 1. Did you know Hinduism is the world's third-largest religion after Christianity and Islam? 2. Two other religions have originated from Hinduism: Sikhism and Buddhism. 3. Unlike Christianity and Islam, Hinduism doesn't have a singular holy book but instead has many ancient texts and scriptures. 4. Hinduism is one of the oldest religions in the world - some Hindu traditions started over 3000 years ago!