Key skills

To understand what being part of a community means

To understand how one has differing rights and responsibilities at home, school, the community and towards the environment.

To understand how rules and laws designed to protect us are made and how to take part in making and changing rules.

To understand the types of community facilities that are on offer and what is needed for an ideal community.

Key Vocabulary/definitions

Community - a group of people living in the same place or having a particular characteristic in common

Volunteer - a person who freely offers to undertake a task, often without payment

Rights – a moral or legal entitlement to have or do something.

Responsibilities – the state or fact of being responsible, answerable, or accountable for something within one's power, control, or management.

Facilities – a place or amenity provided for a particular purpose.

Useful Information

- Children will be thinking about what communities they are part of, and will be able to recognise that every individual's communities are very different. They will also look at how to make others feel included, and the importance of not excluding anyone.
- Through hands on activities, children will learn what and responsibilities are, and how the two are linked, by looking at questions such as 'if you have the right to stay safe in school, what responsibilities do we all have to ensure this happens?'
- Children will learn about the importance of rules and laws, and will think about what rules and laws they think are necessary in society
- Topics such as volunteering and protecting the environment will also be covered
- Throughout all the lessons, children will practise listening to one another and voicing their own opinions with confidence.
