L.O. To use plurals for nouns, including those ending in 'y'

Complete the sentences, spelling the plural words correctly. Remember, for most nouns you just add an 's' to make it plural; it's only for the nouns ending in 'y' that we need to be careful!

The  licked their paws.
Angrily, the  stared at one another.
There are too many  buzzing round our food.
Children and  are half price at the hotel.
Can I please take these  ?

L.O. To read and spell tricky words

Read the words below:

most 	wild 	both
child 	only 	climb

Sort these words into the groups below:

'i' making long i sound	'o' making a long o sound

L.O. To write in the past tense, remembering the rules for adding -ed to words ending in y and in e

Write these sentences out in the past tense, thinking carefully about your spelling.

- Quickly, we hurry home.
- I walk through the dark tunnel.
- Sally fries an egg for breakfast.
- We waste too much food.
- I spy on my neighbours from my window.
- Happily, the dog chases the rat.
- Later, I look out the window.

L.O. To revise the spelling of words ending in: -el, -le, -il, -al

A quick recap of these spellings – sort them into the correct column:

-el	-al	-il	-le

capital 	pupil 	pencil 	bicycle
pedal 	metal 	hospital 	animal
tunnel 	unusual 	table 	title

L.O. To use the apostrophe to show omission (missing letters)

Write these sentences out using an apostrophe to show omission.

It is a lovely, sunny day.

We could not find our way home.

They are going swimming after school.

The boy did not know the answer to the question.

Do not forget to decorate your art work!
