L.O. To use commas in a list

We are going to use commas in a list to describe different characters this week.

When you're writing a list to describe a character, it's helpful to think about the different parts of their bodies eg. face, eyes, hair, hands and mouth. You could also describe their clothes. You also MUST put in some adjectives to make your list descriptive.

Change this list each time to by adding adjectives to describe the different characters in the story.

She / He had _____ eyes, _____ hair and wore _____ clothes.

the fairy	the prince	the princess	the king

Here are some adjectives to help you:

People	Objects	Good feelings	Bad feelings	Size
adorable adventurous aggressive annoying beautiful caring confident clumsy confident considerate excitable glamorous grumpy happy helpful important intimidating obnoxious odd talented thoughtless timid handsome	bright clear distinct drab elegant filthy gleaming grotesque long magnificent precious sparkling spotless strange unsightly unusual valuable	brave calm cheerful comfortable courageous determined eager elated encouraged energetic excited exuberant fantastic fine healthy joyful pleasant relieved	angry annoyed anxious ashamed awful bewildered bored confused defeated defiant depressed disgusted disturbed dizzy embarrassed envious frightened hungry lonely scared terrified worried	big colossal enormous gigantic great huge immense large little long mammoth massive meagre mighty miniature minuscule petite puny short tall teeny tiny

Challenge: can you write a descriptive list for the frog? You can't talk about his hair or clothes but you could mention his skin, his eyes.....

L.O. To use the apostrophe for omission

Put the apostrophe in the correct place in these sentences.

- I couldnt remember the way home.
- Dont forget to bring your water bottle.
- Theyre jumping on their trampoline.
- Its raining so we cant go out.
- I dont know the answer but Ill find out.
- You shouldnt run across the road because its dangerous.
