L.O. To use the conjunction 'if'

In the story, the princess promises that she will let the frog live in the royal place if he gives her the golden ball back.

What else might she promise, in return for the ball?

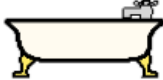

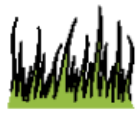

Think of three promises she might make and write them using the sentence structure below.

I will _____ if you give me my golden ball back.

eg. I will feed you fresh flies every day if you give me my golden ball back.

L.O. To read and spell tricky words

Fill in the missing letters to make the tricky words.

__ter 	h_r 	b_t_ 	f__her 	e__
 b__tiful	 pr_tty	 cl__	 gr__	 p__

L.O. To use the past tense correctly

This passage is in the PRESENT TENSE. Write it out so that it is in the past tense, thinking carefully about your spellings. The verbs you need to change have been highlighted.

The princess promises that she will let the frog live in the palace if he gives her the special, golden ball back. Carefully, the slimy frog fetches the precious ball. Immediately, the princess runs away to the palace without the poor frog. Later, the princess tells her father, the king, about what has happened. The king tells her she must keep her promises so the girl hurries quickly back to the old well to find the frog.
