Benjamin's dad was originally from Barbados and was a postal worker. His mum was originally from Jamaica and worked as a nurse. Benjamin spent a lot of time living in London but he now lives in China.

Poems

Benjamin is famous for his poems and the way that he reads them out. Benjamin performs in a way that is called 'dub poetry'. Dub poets change the speed and sound of their voice so that it sounds like music when they read poems out loud. Benjamin didn't like the idea that poems were only for people who went to school or university. He thought that poems should be for everyone to enjoy. Because of this, he performed his poetry so that everyone could hear and enjoy it.

Causes

Benjamin writes poems about things that he believes in. He has written many poems against racism and slavery. In the early 1980s, he argued against homelessness and other problems that he saw in Britain through his poems. He performed these poems outside police stations and during demonstrations. He also writes lots about the way that we treat animals and he works with lots of groups who help animals.

Books

Benjamin has written many books of poetry for adults and children. He has also written several fiction books for teenagers. His first book of poetry for children was called 'Talking Turkeys' and told people that they should be nice to their turkeys at Christmas. This book was so popular that all of the copies sold out in only six weeks and more had to be printed!
