

KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER

KS1

Genre	Key skills	Spelling
Narratives about real/fictional experiences of others	To write a narrative with a clear beginning, middle and end To use own ideas when writing a narrative	We will be learning how to spell our tricky common exception words.
Text(s)	To write sentences punctuated with capital letters and full stops. To use a variety of punctuation including question marks and exclamation marks. To use conjunctions	We will be learning how to spell words containing long vowel sounds and consonant clusters. We will be using suffixes in our spelling lessons for example -ing -ed and -ful/-less.
Man On The Moon – A Day in the Life of Bob by Simon Bartram
The Magic Finger – Roald Dahl
The First Moon Landing

Examples of skills	Useful information
We use conjunctions to extend our sentences and join our ideas. Man On The Moon – A Day in the Life of Bob by Simon Bartram Bob is a man who goes to work each day on the moon. He is a cleaner and he cleans up after all the messy tourists! Can you change the story so your character has a different job on the moon? Sacha's idea: Sophie is a lady who set off each day to work on the moon. She works as a vet and she looks after all the poorly aliens. The Magic Finger Here are some sentences I have written. Can you spot any mistakes? She cast her finger on poor mrs winter  The girl was furious. So she cast her finger on mrs winter  What do you think happened to mrs winter  All the children laughed becos of Mrs Winter's tayl.	Listen to the story of Man On The Moon – A Day in the Life of Bob by Simon Bartram  https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Rt5zQ1UO6rE Practise your phonics skills with the BBC Small Town Superheroes. Can you spot any of the tricky common exception words in your reading book? Have a go at writing them down and practising them until you can spell them off by heart!