

KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER

LITERACY		YEAR 5
Genres of writing	Key skills	Spelling
Science fiction/Fantasy Texts that share a view point	Use consistent and correct tense throughout a piece of writing Use commas to indicate parenthesis Use relative clauses beginning with: who, which, where, when, whose, that or an omitted relative pronoun Integrate dialogue within a narrative to convey character	Spelling words with silent letters Design Knife Wrap To convert nouns or adjectives into verbs using the suffixes ate, ise, ify Considerate Realise Magnify
Text(s)
Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone	Link ideas across paragraphs using adverbials of time, place, number or tense choices Write non-narrative using persuasive language
Examples of skills
Consistent Tense Harry waited patiently for a new letter to arrive. He desperately hoped that he would be able to grab it before his uncle. – Past tense Harry waits patiently for a new letter to arrive. – Present tense Parenthesis Vernon, Harry's uncle, hated any mention of magic. On Harry's 11th birthday (31st July), a kind hearted, giant of a man arrived to finally give him his letter.	Relative Clauses Dudley, who is Harry Potter's cousin, was incredibly spoilt. Integrated dialogue within a Narrative to Convey Character Aunt Petunia glanced around, a judgemental look on her pointed face. Her eyes fell on her nephew. "Why are you still here?" she scowled whilst gesturing for him to leave immediately. Adverbials of Time, Place and Number Moments later, - time On the island, - place Once, - number	