

KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION		WHY ARE HOLY BOOKS SPECIAL?		KS1
Cross curricular links		Key skills		Key Vocabulary/definitions
Literacy – link to storytelling, learning stories from different communities.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Understanding that respect can be shown to objects as well as people</li><li>• Understanding that stories can have meanings, messages, lessons and morals beyond the literal story</li><li>• Asking thoughtful questions</li><li>• Understanding the concept of “holy” for religious believers</li></ul>		Bible – The Christian holy scripture Qu’ran – The Muslim holy scripture Torah – The Jewish holy scripture Holy – Something that is special because it is connected to God Respect – treating something or someone with care and politeness to show that it is special and important Yad – A pointer used when reading the Torah scroll
Pictures/photos relevant to topic		Key facts
 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The Qu’ran is written in Arabic</li><li>• The Torah is written in Hebrew</li><li>• The Bible is written in hundreds of different languages but was first written in Hebrew and Greek</li><li>• Some ways that Muslims show respect to the Qu’ran include putting it on a stand to read and washing hands before reading it</li><li>• A Sefer Torah scroll in a synagogue is kept in a special cupboard called an ark</li></ul> Extra home learning Search BBC teach: religions of the world on YouTube There are a range of stories from the scriptures of different religions that you can watch and talk about at home		